MINNEHARA'S ANTICS AT WESTCHESTER.

REMOUNTED AND RIDDEN IN FOR THIRD PLACE -A SORRY LOT OF STARTERS.

The New-York Jockey Club was unfortunate in the entries for yesterday's contests. Except in the second face the fields were made up chiefly of horses that rank little better than selling-platers. Fall Season. while in the first and fourth races the starters were wellnigh worthless animals. As a whole, the card was one of the poorest of the year, but the attendance was large, the delightful weather and the near approach of the close of the season causing lovers of racing to ignore the dismal prospects which the programme held forth.

The Hunter Handicap for three-year-old fillies was a ridiculous farce. John liunter is easily displeased. In fact he has a Tabasco sauce temper. He must have fumed and fretted that a rac named after him should turn out so contemptible sp and absurd an affair. The starters were Minne-haha, Grace Brown and La Diva. These are uadoubtedly three of the worst fillies that ever started anywhere on earth for a contest of any importance. Minnehaba, the favorite, fell over the rail in the first furlong, while Grace Brown was so sore that she could hardly gallop, and she was beaten off by La Diva in one of the slowest races run, this reason. The judges waited until Minnehaha had been caught and remounted, and had galloped over the course for the third money. This was permissible, but could hardly be termed

In the first race, which was for maidens, the betting was brisk, with no decided favorite until the horses were on the way to the post, when Jodan became first choice. For five furious Jacintha showed the way, Jodan then took the lead, and won in a drive lps a length, Benvolio second, a length before Radiator.

Comanche was the favorite in the second race.

but Reiff, on Hugh Penny, shot out at the start and was in front to the end, winning by a length, Comanche second, a head before Sarah Ramey. Ten ran in the Albany Stakes for two-year-olds. In the early betting Harrington was the favorite. but the shrewdest speculators supported Rightmore, and he was backed down from 3t to 1 to while Harrington went up to 4 to 1. Ben Lomond was in front for five furlongs, but then seemed to tire, while Sims brought up Rightmore and won by a half length; Appemattox, who was poorly handled, second, a neck before Ben Lomond.

In the Hunter Handicap Minnehaha took the lead, but she soon bolted and ran into the rail. She fell, throwing Penn over the fence. The other filles went crawling en. La Diva a neck in front for a Then she began to draw clear, and a howl went up from the crowd, not of delight, as few spectators believed she had a chance. She won, however, in a gallop by six lengths, Grace Brown coming almost to a walk as they peared the Minnehaha finished some minutes later, Penn hav-

Ten two-year-old filles ran in the fifth race. Beldemere, the favorité, was never better than fourth. Florence led to near the finish, and then began to stop. Fondoline beat her by a length. Nahma was third a length away.

Nahma was third a length away.

The McCafferty-Wishard party, in the last race, deluged the ring with money on Little Billy, who led all the way and-wen under a pull by a length; Speculation second, a length before Beansey. No. 6 of Part II of the thirteenth season of "Goodwin's Official Turf Guide" is now out. No one who cares for racing can possibly keep him-self informed in regard to turf matters without buying "Goodwin's Guide," and giving much careful study to its contents.

AHLWARDTISM IN THE REICHSTAG.

The Reichstag will not resume its sessions be-fore November 20. When the House opens, the voice of Ahlwardtism will again be heard, louder and more powerful than ever. Disgrace and social disrepute do not affect Ahlwardt's influence. At a recent congress of North German Anti-Semites his programme found unanimous acceptance Among the proposals there submitted and accepted was the absurd one of forbidding Hebrews to have German servants. The congress declared a new de-In alliance with the Conservatives, with whom the party at one time affiliated. A resolution adopted, declaring that the Anti-Semites should oppose all indirect taxation which burdened the lower and middle classes, proved the desire of the party to split with the Conservatives. Another section of the Anti-Semites held a meeting at Chemnitz, and by their proceedings appeared to be less inclined to desert the Conservatives on hearing from Herren Liebermann and Von Sonnenberg that with the pledged support of the Conservatives their faction would obtain places on the Reichstag committees

NEGOTIATING FOR PEACE AT RIO. ADMIRAL MELLO REFRAINS FROM AN ATTACK AT THE REQUEST OF FOREIGN N. 'NA COMMANDERS.

London, Sept. 30 .- A dispatch received by the Exchange Telegraph Company here states that Admiral Mello, commanding the rebel Brazilian fleet. intended to attack one of the forts at the mouth of the harbor of Rio Janeiro this morning, but desisted owing to the representations of manders of the foreign warships now in the harbor.
The dispatch adds that Mr. Wyndham, British Minister to Brazil, and the other Ministers are endeavoring to bring about a cessation of hostilities Mr. Wyndham believes that the effort will be successful, and expects that the situation will immediately be modified.

THE "BOYNTON" INCIDENT TRIVIAL. Washington, Sept. 30.-There were no new de-American arrested on suspicion of an attempt to blow up a rebel warship in Rio Harbor and turned over to the commander of the cruiser Charleston, Captain Picking's inquiry, "Shall I send him home?" has not yet been answered, and the Navy Department is in a quandary as to what shall be done with the offender. Secretary Herbert has had the matter looked into with reference to 'Hoynton's" alleged offence, and has been informed by competent authority that using the flag of anby competent authority that using the flag of another nation as a ruse is recognized as legitimate in warfare, provided the flag is hauled down before a hostile shot is fired. The inclient is considered as trivial and will probably be settled without difficulty unless some unforeseen complication arises. The identity of "Boynton" is not known 20 the Government. Captain Picking's dispatch referred to him simply by that name.

FOR A NEW FRANCO-SIAMESE TREATY. A PEREMPTORY DEMAND MADE FOR ITS ACCEPT-ANCE WITHIN FORTY-EIGHT HOURS.

Bangkok, Sept. 30.-M. Le Myre de Vilers, the French Special Envoy to Siam, yesterday presented to the Siamese Government for acceptance the draft of a treaty superseding the convention pre-viously submitted by him. The draft was accompanied by a written announcement that it must be adopted without alteration within forty-eight hours. It is understood that the new treaty does not include any conditions in excess of the terms of the original ultimatum sent by France to Siam. M. de Vilers threatens if this treaty is not accepted within the time specified he will leave Bangkok.

HOW FUTURE DIFFERENCES MAY BE SET-TLED.

London, Sept. 30 .- Justice John M. Harlan, of the United States Supreme Court, and one of the mem-bers of the recent Behring Sea Tribunal of Arbitrastated in a private conversation at St. James's Hall at a Sunday mission meeting that personally he believed that if in future a difference should arise between England and the United States the intervention of strangers would not be invoked, but that an equal number of judges of the highest courts of both countries would be appointed to settle the difference.

PREFERRED DEATH TO SLOCRIAN EXILE. Warsaw, Sept. 20.-Captain Tomassevicz, of the Russian Artillery, was arraigned before a court-martial here to-day to answer charges of ill-treating a sentinel and forging documents. The evidence was overwhelming against him, and the court speedily found him guilty and sentenced him to exile in Siberia. As soon as the sentence was an nounced Captain Tomassevicz drew a revolver and shot himself dead.

ENDANGERING LIFE AT SEA.

DERELICTS IN THE TRACK OF OCEAN-LINERS PROPOSED LEGISLATION TO REMOVE THEM. Washington, Sept. 30.-Twenty derelicts endanger navigation along the Atlantic coast from Maine to North Carolina. It is probable that more such dangerous obstructions exist, but so far the Hydrographic Office of the Navy Department has received information that enables it to locate only the number named. Nearly all of the unfortunate vessels were wrecked in the great West Indian hurricane of last August, and the hulks have been roaming about the ocean ever since. The reports to the Hydrographic Office show that the derelicts are well distributed along the coast, with a number in close proximity between Cape Hatteras and St. Augustine. From Norfolk eastward 1,00) miles four dismantled hulks are floating. Two wrecked vesse are dangerously near the route of ships proceeding from New-York to Queenstown. On September 17 the sunken tugboat Salesman floating in Gedey Channel, Lower New-York Bay, between No. and No. 3 buoys, and some vessel with two spars showing was twelve miles north by west off Barnegat. Off the Highlands of Navesink Lights, eighteen miles north-northwest, the topmasts of the unken terne schooner Narragansett were seen or September 24.

the increasing commerce of the world, the necessity of some international arrangement for the removal of dangerous derelicts becomes more apparent. Mr. Aldrich in the Senate and Mr. Cummings in the House are endeavoring to secure legislation on the subject. The resolutions they have introduced authorize the President to make an international agreement with the governments interested in the navigation of the North Atlantic Ocean to provide for th reporting, marking and removal of dangerous wrecks and derelicts and other menaces to navigation in the North Atlantic outside the coast waters countries bordering thereon.

The Kearsarge has been detailed to look after a number of derelicts which have appeared off the coast, particularly near Cape Henry, and has gone prepared for their extermination. A few days ago the Teutonic sighted a waterlogged derelict when within 500 yards of her. It is thought that the Naronic may have gone down from a similar cause.
